LANCASTER, KENTUCKY.

Sale Declared Off

Mr. Booth Thompson who advertised his sale in last week's issue of our paper has sold his farm privately to his brother, Mr. R. E. Thompson for $30,000.00 and will not have the sale. This is one of the best farms in Garrard county.

Mr. Booth Thompson and family are thinking of going west but it is hoped that they remain here.

Chief Herron Makes Two Arrests

On last Friday night Chief Herron arrested Wm. Lewis (col.) in Lincoln county who was wanted at Covington, Ky., charged with stealing a horse. Mr. Herron took the negro to Covington Sunday and turned him over to the authorities at that place.

He also arrested Willie Yantiss a colored boy whose home is in Lancaster, Sunday, who was wanted in Lincoln county charged with horse stealing. He is accused of stealing a horse from Link Higgins (col.) who lives near Stanford. Jones recovered his horse last Friday.

The state offers a reward of fifty dollars for each horse thief convicted and if both of these are convicted Mr. Herron will receive the rewards.

Council Meeting

At the regular Council meeting last Monday night the City Council passed an ordinance placing a one thousand dollar license on all soft drink stands where malt, meade, beerine and other similar drinks are sold. The ordinance will go into effect from and after its publication.

An ordinance was also passed making it a fine for any person to ride a bicycle, velocipede or tricycle upon the sidewalks or pavements in the city.

A telephone franchise was introduced and was rejected by the Council. The Committee composed of Hons. W. I. Williams, J. E. Robinson and G. B. Swinebroad who were appointed to make a report as to the telephone conditions in this town and county made their report which was a good one and will be printed in the CENTRAL RECORD of next week.

Death Penalty

The negro, Shay Pellman, charged with criminally assaulting little Nancy Rankin at Hubbs some six weeks ago was tried in Stanford last week and the jury returned a verdict inflicting the death penalty. A jury had to be summoned from Boyle county as it was impossible to get one from Lincoln who had not expressed an opinion.

Only five witnesses testified. Mrs. Lee Rankin, mother of the girl the little girl herself, Mr. Thomas Rankin and Mr. Huffman testified for the prosecution. They made a very strong case against the negro. Pellman took the stand for himself and denied every charge made against him. The case was argued by Commonwealth's Attorney Chas. A. Hardin and Attorney R. H. Tomlinson, the latter representing Pellman.

The jury was given the case at six o'clock last Friday evening. At 8:30 they had not reached an agreement so were allowed to sleep on the question until Saturday morning when they returned the verdict at 10:15 o'clock. Judge Walker refused to grant a new trial and the case will be appealed.

Unless another trial is granted Pellman will be electrocuted at Eddyville, Ky., in accordance with the new law adopted by the last legislature. In the meantime, on account of the alleged presence of the mob spirit in Lincoln, the negro has been taken to Lexington for safe keeping.

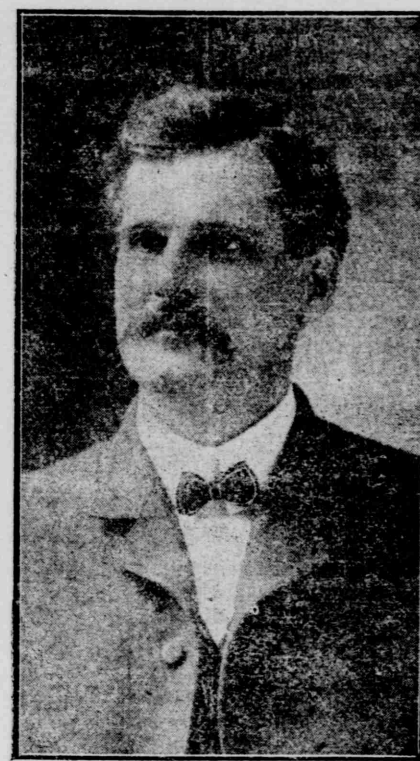

The date of execution has been fixed for December 16. His will be the first electrocution in Kentucky under the new law.

Unjust Criticism

While in Stanford last week we heard a man say that he believed that the negro Shay Pellman would have been killed had it not been for the militia to protect him. We quote below an article that appeared in the last Saturday's Danville Advocate, which shows what some people think of the Interior Journal for the unjust criticism it gave Judge Walker. "The fact that Judge Walker is a Republican should not subject him to criticism when he is endeavoring to do his duty. He is severely arraigned by the Stanford Interior Journal because he called out the soldiers to prevent Shay Pellman, the brutal negro, from being lynched.

Nobody knew better than the officers of Lincoln county that Pellman was in danger of being mobbed, other wise they would not have spirited him away to Lebanon for safe-keeping. It was even thought that the mob spirit was so rampant that Pellman might be taken from the Lebanon jail and he was hurried away to Louisville.

There is some mystery about this sentiment dying out completely, if the Interior Journal is to be believed, exactly on the day that Pellman was returned. If local officers could protect him, why was he not returned at once? In fact, why was he not brought back in the first place? The Advocate is strongly opposed to the politics of Judge Walker, but will always stand ready to commend him when he upholds the law as he is sworn to do."

HON. CHAS. A. HARDIN

who will probably be the next Circuit Judge of this district. Since the Hon. Chas. A. Hardin announced through the press that he would be a candidate for Circuit Judge of this district, subject to the action of the Democratic party, much comment has been observed favorable to his selection. We copy a portion of the publication of his home paper, the Harrodsburg Herald:—As a man and citizen no one in this district stands higher in public estimation. Fearless, just, conscientious, of clean, pure life and high ideals, the judicial temperament and piety should find in him easy and rapid development. Sprung from a race of lawyers of eminence in their profession, Mr. Hardin possesses a laudable ambition to excel, as already manifested in his official career, which becomes his pledge and guaranty of excellence in any position to which he may be called by the people.

Hoozier Cotton sale still on at Batson's this week.

The money for the teachers will not be ready until Oct. 15th.

Miss Jennie Higgins

To Argue Case

Miss Cora Nance, of Dayton, Ky., has been given permission to argue a case in which she is interested before the Court of Appeals. This will be the first woman who ever appeared as an advocate in Kentucky's highest Court.

Daily Advocate

The price of the Daily Advocate is $3.00 per year. It is published every day except Sunday and is one of the best papers, we think that comes into our office. We have made arrangements with the Advocate, whereby all of our subscribers can get the Advocate for $2.00 per year.

Demand For Teachers.

The cry comes from the northwest, especially from Washington and Oregon, for more school teachers. Those who go there marry so fast that the demand for female teachers is always greater than the supply. This may be a scheme to get pretty school marmes to come to those states by stating the possibilities. If so it is a pretty good one. At any rate some of them will try it, especially those whose charms have not been fully recognized at home. Good teachers are in demand everywhere, however, while women from which to select wives are as thick as leaves in Vallombrosa.—W. P. Walton in Lexington Herald.

Ewell Will Not Run.

The leading Republicans of the Eighth Congressional district headed by Collector Ludlow F. Petty, of Shelbyville, created much interest when they began mobilizing at the Glicker House in Danville shortly before noon last Saturday. Numerous conferences were held and leaders in squads were observed discussing absorbing topics.

Later in the day announcement was made that R. L. Ewell, recently nominated to make the race for congress on the Republican ticket against Harvey Helm, the Democratic nominee, had formally withdrawn from the race. His withdrawal was accepted.

Hon. Hugh Miller, circuit court clerk of Rockcastle county, was nominated to make the race against Helm. He is a well known Republican leader, but he cant down the Hon. Harvey Helm.

Judge Burnside Badly Hurt.

Judge R. A. Burnside was probably fatally injured in a street car accident in Cincinnati on Monday evening. His skull was fractured, he received several internal injuries and he suffered concussion of the brain. It is said that he had just left a car on Warsaw avenue and was crossing the track to the other side of the street when the car coming from the other direction struck him. He was knocked unconscious and was moved to the City hospital where medical aid was given and his wounds dressed. His daughter Miss Bertha left on the early train Wednesday morning and a telegraphic message from her this Thursday morning states that the Judge is doing nicely and has been removed to a private hospital where every attention is being paid him. He will be removed to his home here as soon as he is able to make the trip.

Judge Burnside is a good man and is said to be one of the most polite men in Lancaster. He has many friends and every one is very much grieved over the sad accident and hope that he will soon fully recover.

For Sale—A nice six room dwelling with two acres of ground. App'y at this office. 10-7-tf.

Garrard Milling Co.

Mr. H. S. Riddleberger has sold his one third interest in the Garrard Milling Co., to Mr. F. G. Hurt, price private. The mill is now owned by Messrs. Gregory, Champ and Hurt and all three are fine business men.

The mill is already a success and the flour and meal is very much complimented. Mr. Riddleberger has not decided what he will do but it is hoped that he will engage in business in Lancaster.

The Alma Kellner Case.

Joseph Wendling charged with the murder of little Alma Kellner, last December, appeared in the Criminal Court of Jefferson county last Monday and plead not guilty.

Wendling's attorneys moved to set aside the indictment and filed demurrers to the charges contained therein, and the Court set a motion for hearing next Saturday. The attorneys for Wendling also moved to have the case moved to United States Court for trial on the ground that he is an alien and is entitled to a jury six members of which shall not be citizens of the United State.
